

Psychometric properties of the Short Leyton Obsessional Inventory-Child Version in a community sample of Spanish children and adolescents

Marina Iniesta-Sepúlveda¹, Ana I. Rosa-Alcázar², Beatriz Ruíz García³, José Antonio López-Pina²

¹Catholic University of San Antonio of Murcia, Faculty of Health Sciences (Spain)

²University of Murcia, Faculty of Psychology (Spain)

³Morales Meseguer Hospital. Public Health Service. Murcia (Spain)

Corresponding Author:

Marina Iniesta Sepúlveda
Faculty of Health Sciences
Campus de Los Jerónimos
Catholic University of Murcia
30107-Murcia, Spain
E-mail: miniستا@ucam.edu
Telephone: 00+34+968278181
Fax: 00+34+968278713