

Check-list before submission

To facilitate the review of the manuscript we suggest authors to make a final revision of the document before submission, and to take the time to address the following:

Mandatory features	Yes	No
Have you used the template provided and followed every step (formal aspects, structure, style...)?
Is the length of the manuscript no longer than 25 pages?
Has the manuscript been written according to the structure suggested by the journal (introduction, theoretical framework, method, results and discussion, and final conclusion)?
Have names and affiliations been removed from the manuscript to make it anonymous? Verify authorship, geographical details, acknowledgements and references. personal details and Does the manuscript follow APA 7th Edition for in-text citation and references?

Note: failure to comply with these requirements means that the paper will be immediately rejected by the editorial board.

To facilitate the review of the manuscript we suggest authors to make a final revision of the document before submission, and to take the time to address the following:

Mandatory features	Yes	No
Has the manuscript been thoroughly read to avoid errors and typos in the writing and format style?
Has the research method been properly described?
Have all the proposed research objectives been addressed?
Is the research based on current bibliography supporting its claims?
Has Panta Rei been consulted to check whether there are already published papers that could contribute to the research to be submitted?

Note: these features will be taken into special consideration by the editorial board to provide a positive assessment of the submission.